

Written by Admin

Monday, 01 March 2010 06:18 - Last Updated Monday, 01 March 2010 06:19

Publication: The Village Buzz

Location: Ashland, Ohio

Author: Sergio T. Ruiz

E-Mail: sruiz@bright.net

Web Site: <http://www.bright.net/~sruiz>

The Village Buzz

Lost Angel - Destination

Coming to us from the Mansfield, Ohio area, are Lost Angel. In existence since 1992, Lost Angel have gone through a few band member changes, but throughout their career as a band have maintained the same ideal, to produce top quality rock and roll. Relying on hooking melodies and riffs, and meaningful lyrics, it is their intention to provide the music scene with a dose of high octane rock and roll.

Produced at Mars Recording Studios, in Columbus, Ohio, they are currently touring the area to promote their latest effort,

Destination. Although they do not have a label backing them, they are proceeding in the true DIY spirit, and turning heads in the process.

Destination is a raucous rollercoaster ride through the twists and turns of rock and metal. Although we have not had a chance to catch their live act, the album breathes a spirit of rock and roll. This album covers all bases, and leaves no stone unturned. From the ballad of new-found love, "Kiama" to the seething and scathing "B*tch from Hell." For those of you who have the taste for metal, and can't get enough, you would be well advised to catch up with Lost Angel. In addition to the fact that they rock, they also mentioned Art Bell in their liner notes. Instant Buzz Approval.

SG